SIM University’s Bachelor of Accountancy degree will be recognised by the Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority from next Friday. This means that graduates from the programme will have satisfied the qualification requirement which is the first step towards registration as a public accountant under the Accountants Act (Cap. 2).