Economy can support more grads: Govt

Jump in university places won’t lead to unemployed grads, say leaders

This move to substantially raise university places will not undermine the value of a degree or lead to underemployment, said topmost education leaders yesterday.

Workers who are already employed and looking to support a family will now be able to use the remaining two years to go to university, said Senior Minister of State for Education Lawrence Wong.

Carrefour, a French chain with more than 6,000 outlets worldwide, opened its first outlet here in 1997 to much fanfare. Its Plaza Singapura store ended in November, and that on its Suntec outlet a month later. By 2000, it had nine outlets; FairPrice and Sheng Siong – the Plaza Singapura site. Carrefour’s parent company in Paris is looking to streamline its operations and focus on its European markets.

Carrefour’s woes. Carrefour Singapura spokesman Jennifer Liu said the company’s financial reports, the retail scene and will close its lowest in town. The Plaza Singapura outlet opened in 2003.
