Listed below are some answers to FAQs on GMAT.

About the GMAT

1. How do I schedule an appointment to take the GMAT exam?

   Go to the GMAT website at http://www.mba.com/global and register for an account and schedule an appointment for a GMAT test.

2. Where can I take the GMAT exam?

   The GMAT exam is delivered year-round. Test centers are around the world. In Singapore, the test centres are:
   - NEXT U PTE. LTD.
   - NTUC Trade Union House
   - 73 Bras Basah Road
   - #03-01 Room 3J
   - Singapore 189556
   - Pearson Professional Centers-Singapore
   - International Plaza
   - Level 30, Unit 3,
   - 10 Anson Road
   - Singapore 079903

   Test centres will be listed when you schedule a GMAT appointment at mba.com.

3. How much does it cost to take the GMAT exam?

   The cost to take the GMAT exam is US $250 globally. Check mba.com for up to date fees. Payment methods are listed at mba.com.

4. What are the test dates for the GMAT exam?

   The GMAT is available year-round and on demand but subject to availability of test slots. Test slots are scheduled on most days of the week.

5. What does the GMAT exam measure?

   The GMAT is an exam which will test your verbal, mathematical, and integrated reasoning skills, and analytical writing skills. This is not a content test but it is based on knowledge of mathematics and English. You are not permitted to bring in a calculator. One will be provided for the Integrated Reasoning section.

6. How can I prepare to take the GMAT exam?

   There are numerous methods. A good start is to understand the test. You can download free tests and preparation software from GMAC®. GMAC® also offers a number of books, e-resources, and practice exam questions which can be purchased online. Some are available in retail bookshops.
There are many publishers who provide GMAT® preparation guides that you can use to self-study and prepare for GMAT®. Some offer face to face and online courses. You are advised to read reviews on these publications and courses before deciding to buy or subscribe. Reviews can be found on online ordering sites (e.g. Amazon) and GMAT blog sites. SUSS does not validate any of these reviews.

What to Expect at the GMAT Test Center?

7. Q: What ID do I need to bring to the test center?

Bring along an ID is government-issued, valid (not expired), original (no photocopies), legible and include:

• A recent, recognizable photo
• Your name spelled exactly as you provided when you registered
• Your signature
• Your date of birth as you provided at registration

Acceptable IDs include your IC, a driver’s license or passport. Learn more about presenting proper identification.

8. When do I get my scores?

An unofficial score report with Integrated Reasoning, Verbal Reasoning, Quantitative Reasoning, and Total scores will be provided immediately after your test. AWA score will only be reported in the official score report. Keep this unofficial score report. You will need the authentication code in this report to access your official score report.

Official score reports will be available online within 20 days. You will be notified by email.

9. Can I cancel my scores?

You have an option to cancel the score immediately after completing the test, before receiving the unofficial score and before you leave the test centre. You cannot cancel your scores after they are reported to you. If you do not answer in 2 minutes, the scores will be cancelled. You can reinstate scores within 60 days but it will cost to reinstate the scores.

10. If I’ve taken the GMAT exam more than once, will the score report contain all the scores?

Scores for the last five years will be reported in your GMAT® score reports. Cancellations will be indicated in your official score reports.

More can be found at http://www.mba.com/the-gmat/answers-to-frequently-asked-questions.aspx#scores5.

FAQ was based on information available on MBA.com as on 26th November 2014. The official GMAT® website is http://www.mba.com/global/the-gmat-exam.aspx.