BA ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE WITH MINOR (Part-time Programme)
Programmes overview

These programmes combine the disciplines of language studies and literature. The linguistics courses will deepen your understanding of the language system and broaden your perspective on language use and discourse in society. The literature courses introduce you to a range of literary genres, periods and styles, and teach you to critically analyse texts using key concepts and theories. You may opt for a minor in Business, Film Studies, Psychology, Sociology or Translation.

Whom are these programmes for?

The BA English programmes will be useful to people working in a variety of fields, and particularly those who intend to teach or use English professionally (eg. journalists, public relations officers and editors).

- GCE ‘A’ level with two passes (prior to 2006) or two H2 passes (from 2006), or local Polytechnic Diploma or International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma or NUS High School Diploma. Applicants with an acceptable SAT1 score may be considered for admission on a case-by-case basis;
- Two years of full-time work experience or currently employed on a full-time basis; and
- At least 21 years old

Additional requirements:

- At least a Grade B4 in English Language in the GCE ‘O’ Level Examination, or
- At least a Grade B4 in GCE ‘A’ Level General Paper (English), or
- At least a Grade B4 in English Paper 121, 1120 or 1119 at SPM, or
- At least a Grade 4 in English (for IB Diploma holders)

Applicants who do not hold these qualifications may submit an IELTS score of 6.5 or higher.

For additional requirements for the minor in Translation, please refer to http://www.suss.edu.sg/programmes/programme-details/Pages/BA-English-with-Translation.aspx

Shortlisted candidates may be required to undergo one or more interview(s) and/or take written admission or other evaluation tests.

All applications are considered individually on merit, and the offer of admission depends on the number of places available. Admission is solely at the discretion of Singapore University of Social Sciences (formerly known as SIM University).

How to Apply

Applications are to be made online via suss.edu.sg. You must submit all the required documents together with your admission application. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Tuition Fees and Government Subsidy

The amount you pay in course fees in each semester depends on the number of courses you take in that semester. Course fees cover all study materials, classes, supervision, assignments and examinations. They do not include costs for textbooks and other additional items specified by the university from time to time.

Students may be eligible for a government subsidy of up to 55% of the course fee. In addition, Singapore Citizens (SC) aged 40 and above who are pursuing MOE-subsidised undergraduate programmes with Singapore University of Social Sciences and who are eligible for the SkillsFuture Mid-Career Enhanced Subsidy will pay tuition fees that are 60% lower than the standard subsidised fees payable by other SC students who are below 40 years old.

All Singaporeans aged 25 and above can use their $500 SkillsFuture Credit from the government to pay for a wide range of approved skills-related courses. Visit the SkillsFuture Credit website (www.skillsfuture.sg/credit) to choose from the courses available on the SkillsFuture Credit course directory.

Please visit suss.edu.sg for current tuition fees and eligibility criteria for the government subsidy and SkillsFuture Mid-Career Enhanced Subsidy.

Internet Access

All Singapore University of Social Sciences’ students must have access to a computer or laptop and the Internet in order to use the electronic and website facilities, which allow access to course, academic and administrative information.
